American & Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S Patent Office, Washington under the Act of 1837.)

70 State St., opposite Kilby St.,

BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also, in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into the American or Foreign works, to determine the novelty or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, of ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, rendering him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr Eddy as one of the most capable and successful patent-agents with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,

Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents

"Boston, February 8 1858

"Mr R H Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending, with unanimable proof of great talent and ability on his part. I take much pleasure in testifying to his ability to help inventors to procure patents as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges JOHN TAGGART"

From Sept. 17 h, 1857, to June 17th, 1858, the subscriber, in course of his large practice made on fifteen rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents

The Bank Robbery at Bethel, Conn—How it was done.

We published a telegraphic dispatch last week, giving an account of the Danbury bank of Bethel had been robbed of about $86 000 The following narrative we copy from the Bridgeport Advertiser

The Cashier of the Bank went about the performance of his duty as usual, on Monday morning, but on attempting to unlock the door of the vault, found it could not move it. After a series of trials of several hours, a person was despatched to New York, to procure the assistance of the maker of the lock. Meanwhile a neighboring blacksmith was sent for to try experiments. Contrary to expectation the blacksmith proved successful. The bolt was forced back and the door opened, when the bottom of the safe was found to be gone, and not a dollar of money left in it. The Cashier and other officers of the Bank were utterly at a loss to account for the disappearance of the large sum of money and notes, of which the safe was composed, or for the absence of the money which was left there at the usual time of closing on Saturday afternoon.

The vault was built on a stone foundation of four or five feet in its depth, and capped in the usual manner. On examination, it was discovered that the stone had been carefully undermined, dug out and removed. On further examination it was found that a hole had been neatly sawed through the floor under the table in the directing room. This room was covered with a carpet, which had been taken up so as to obtain access to the floor, under the table, and then replaced, again to be before the discovery could be made. The floor was then carefully sawed through the floor under the vault. Meanwhile a neighboring blacksmith was sent for to try experiments. Contrary to expectation the blacksmith proved successful. On further examination it was found that a hole had been neatly sawed through the floor under the table in the directing room. This room was covered with a carpet, which had been taken up so as to obtain access to the floor, under the table, and then replaced, again to be before the discovery could be made. The floor was then carefully sawed through the floor under the vault. Meanwhile a neighboring blacksmith was sent for to try experiments. Contrary to expectation the blacksmith proved successful. The bolt was forced back and the door opened, when the bottom of the safe was found to be gone, and not a dollar of money left in it. The Cashier and other officers of the Bank were utterly at a loss to account for the disappearance of the large sum of money and notes, of which the safe was composed, or for the absence of the money which was left there at the usual time of closing on Saturday afternoon.

From the amount of labor it must have required to cut the floor and vault as described, and from the complete manner in which the work was all done, it is thought the burglars must have commenced operations some three or four weeks ago. The sawed floor and the floor were so cut as just to fit and when put by that no one could discover that they had ever been removed, even if there had been no carpet over the table. The dirt under the floor and the stone and mortar of which the vault was built, were removed so far away that it could not disclose the work, or how the vault.

Potato Rot.—The Providence Post learns that the blight on the potato has not only interfered with the good crop of the present year, but has wholly disappeared, as predicted in some localities it is worse than it has ever been before. In the town of Benton, where the rot of potatoes are rendered worthless and in some cases the roots have so far advanced as to make the fields offensive to the passers

Ringing Bells across the Atlantic. The Boston Journal says

Professor Sullivan of New Haven writes to a member of the city government suggesting that the Boston Fire Bells, now rung by telegraph, should be rung from London by electricity, from the Atlantic Company's office in that city, and that the London bells swell the chorus, on the first day of the regular communication, and immediately after the passage of the Queen's message to President Buchanan's reply.

Remarkable Cure of a Lunatic. The Cleveland (Ohio) Herald reports that an intemperate man was recently cured of his malady by a surgical operation. The man was thrown from a wagon about two years since, fracturing his skull, from which [illegible] derangement followed, and he was taken to the Lunatic Asylum, where he remained a considerable time, until he was [illegible] as incurable, and finally placed in jail. At the latter place he has remained about a year. His wife recently engaged Dr. Harper to try his skill on the case. After examination, the doctor found a portion of the skull much depressed, and resolved to remove it. The scalp was cut in two and copious doses of chloroform administered until he became entirely insensible, when a piece of the skull a little smaller than a quarter of a dollar was taken out. It was found to be considerably thickened on one side. The bird was then bound with a bandage saturated with water, and the patient left to recover from his stupor. This was on Thursday. On Saturday morning the patient awoke, rose from his bed, and walked up and down the room, perfectly rational.—

The Issues for 1860.

[From the Charleston, (S. C.) News]

The Richmond Enquirer, it will be observed, represents that Senator Douglas is shaping his way back to the head of the Illinois Democracy, on high Southern and Democratic grounds. He adopts the Dred Scott decision as his platform and text. There can be no better than that to old and noble vindication by the Supreme Court of Southern doctrines and rights. But it is not sufficient that the decision of the Supreme Court prevents Congress and all its delegates from the prohibition of slavery in a Territory—there must be positive legislative enactments, a territorial organic code for the protection of slave property in the Territory ought to be provided.

[From the New York Day Book.

Of course the people of a Territory, when they frame their State Constitution, may adopt or exclude "slavery," but while they are a Territory, if they fail to protect property invested in the person, or industrial capacity of the negro, they grossly violate equal rights, and therefore are not authorized to consider themselves Democrats. The whole question is resolved into this single right or no right to protection to slave property in the Federal Territories, and as the Charles on News suggests, it must constitute the issue in 1860

Here we have new slavery issues distinctly stated by leading Democratic organs, North and South. The Democracy of both sections agree to it. The question for 1860 is to be "THE RIGHT OF PROTECTION TO SLAVE PROPERTY IN THE FEDERAL TERRITORIES"

And this issue is a very proper one. It is one which the Democratic party must make, if it would be consistent with its present position. That party has adopted the doctrines of the Dred Scott decision—doctrines which, as the Charleston News well says, rest "upon HIGH SOUTHERN AND DEMOCRATIC GROUND" The sum doctrine of the Dred Scott decision is that slavery is carried into all the Territories under the Constitution, and that slaves may constitutionally be held there—Congress having no right to prohibit it. The Democratic party both North and South—Lecompton and anti-Lecompton—has declared its acceptance of this doctrine. The President has adopted and proclaimed it as administration Democracy, and Senator Douglas has declared it to be anti-administration Democracy. The whole party accepts Dred Scottism, and thus indicates that it will fight the next campaign upon this "GRIM SOUTHERN AND DEMOCRATIC ground." It must therefore make the issue announced as above, by the News, and the Day Book If the Dred Scott decision is correct—if slavery does constitutionally exist in the Federal Territories, then it follows that it should be protected in those Territories. Democracy cannot proclaim one doctrine without adopting the other. It must go on, (as the News says,) and advocate "positive legislative enactments—a civil and criminal code for the protection of slave property in the Territories"

This, then, is the issue A SLAVE CODE FOR THE TERRITORIES. THE BLACK LAWS OF KANSAS TO BE ENACTED BY CONGRESS for all the National Territories. This is what slavery now demands—and demand consistently with the Dred Scott decision. It is only the next step in "the great moral triumph" which Senator Hammond says has been achieved by the slave party. No Democrat who hesitates to take the new departure of the Supreme Court can consistently refuse to go the whole nine thousands.

The Republicans party is free to accept this issue—does not shrink from it. It merely repudiates the doctrine of the Dred Scott decision and declares any and all attempts to enforce that decision by establishing slave laws for the Territories.

Let the people of Maine see to it, that NO DEMOCRAT IS ELECTED TO CONGRESS FROM THIS STATE—unless a Buchanan man nor a Douglas man, but they all maintain the "high Southern and Democratic grounds" that "slavery exists from the Constitution," and should therefore be protected in the Territories.

THE CELEBRATION OF THE UNION OF THE OLD AND THE NEW WORLDS. The telegraphic intelligence received yesterday that the Atlantic cable was in readiness to transmit despatches from the Queen's Message to Buchanan's reply was either to be found in our morning reports, or will in all probability be received during the day. We presume our citizens will unite in the grand simultaneous celebration of the event which will take place throughout America and Europe, by the cannon ringing of bells and the thunders of cannon echoing from hill-top to hill-top and by illuminations and bonfires. In honor of a greater triumph than was ever won by man in the world over.

THE FRENCH RIVER RESERVOIR. We hope to see work put in progress for Patten's River, in the strength of the reported richness of the new gold fields, whose duty considering all he knows seems to be. There is little doubt in the mind of those that in the first place every man who goes is obliged to risk his life every day, either by drowning, by starvation, by exposure, or by Indian—all guilty; and secondly, even as gets there, he can dig only for a mighty brief period in each year.—He is lucky enough to dig $10 or even $50 worth of "the dust" per day, he can't make use of his eyes in the sequel. A recent letter from Victoria (Vancouver's Island) which we find in a San Francisco Times, says:

It is a fact that the river is too high now to work and the old settlers say I must be from August 1 will not be enough to permit of mining. The rain and winter commences in November; so the working season is very short. But in the news papers you will find all the accounts; only beware of the false ones. I know one man here who exhibits California gold dust and represents it as being from Fraser River, for the purpose of speculating on the credulity of the more ignorant

Yours, truly, F. M. BRAND

At the last accounts the miners were benefitting on Queen's Bar, which is considered a good claim. The price current for that article was as low as 50 cents a pound

Triumph of Steam on Canals.

Several experiments have recently been made on the Erie Canal to test the practicability of steam as a motive power on canals. We are informed by the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser of a recent date, that the most important ceremonies took place on Saturday afternoon that Buffalo has witnessed for many a day. The conclusion of the official experiments to test the feasibility of steamboats on the canal, resulting in the joyful consummation of the hopes of the friends of the Erie Canal, was a success second in importance only to the first opening of the grand highway. The experiment were made with a steamboat of new construction, by which the power to operate a navigation by steam were reduced to a minimum—the work of washing the banks, undergoing locks &c. The steamer is called the Pittsburg, and she passed through the canal westward, amid celebrations and general rejoicings The invention is hailed to create a revolution in canal navigation, which will enable it to compete successfully with rail-roading in the transportation business

GEORGE MELVILLE.—An American Novel. New York. W. R. C. Clark & Co., 552

We have not had time to peruse this work in course, but from a pretty thorough examination we perceive that it has a story well told with much ill-used spirit, and full of thrilling incident. Its sketches of character and of New York city life, as well as of naval life and scenery, are vivid and graphic. The plot of the story appears to be well conceived and ably managed If there is anything objectionable in the work, it is that it may possibly open rather too wide a view of "fast" life in New York

MRS. PUTNAM'S RECEIPT BOOK, AND YOUNG HOUSEKEEPER'S ASSISTANT.—Boston Phillips, Sampson & Co.

This is a new and enlarged edition of the popular and now generally accepted Receipt Book of Mrs. Putnam. It is a handsome bound volume, and makes not only an ornamental but an exceedingly useful book for the centre-table. It is emphatically the Young Housekeeper's Assistant.—for it embraces full directions for every kind of cookery in the whole range of the American or English cuisine; and also furnishes needed information upon many other family matters with which most young housekeepers are unacquainted. The work is much more full than any heretofore published.

LOCAL AND MAINE NEWS.

INDIAN ANTIQUITIES. We have been shown by Hon. E. L. Hamlin, a large Indian stone axe, or tomahawk, found at Oldtown, also an Indian stone gouge or chisel, in a fine state of preservation, found near the residence of the Passamaquoddy Indians at Perry. These interesting relics are to be forwarded and presented to the Maine Historical Society, and be placed in their museum by the Hon. H. Vanrenselle, of this city.

This gentleman has been for several years engaged in studying the Indian language of the several tribes in this part of the country, and has published two very interesting works in the Indian language, one called the Indian Good Book, and the other the Song Book, for the use of the Indians in the Catholic service. So far as we can discover, they are very creditable works, and we hope the Rev gentleman, who is attached to the Catholic Church in this city, and has been officiating for several years at the church in Oldtown, will pursue his labors further in this direction, and be able to give to the public some historical account of our Indian languages, and also the meaning of the several Indian names which designate our principal rivers, mountains, lakes and other places. We think him fully competent to do justice to this subject, and the Maine Historical Society would do well to engage his services in this particular as we think a communication from him on these matters would be of much public interest.

The Indian and his language are fast passing away, and at no distant day, will both be dead. It is fortunate that a gentleman of education and of antiquarian taste for the examination of the Indian language, should now have this matter in hand, and we hope he will find time and opportunity to carry out his researches fully, and give the public, in due time, the fruits of his labors.

THE FERRY CASE. Gilbert Soule and Richard Atwood have been arrested by the police, and will be examined on Saturday, on charge of assault upon Wm Rounds Jr. This is the Brewer Ferry case referred to in our paper of yesterday. It is stated that the respondents undertook to fill up or obstruct the ferry-way, legged by Mr. Daniel West. Mr. Wm. Rounds Jr., a relative of Mr West, remonstrating or attempting to prevent the encroachment, was threatened with a revolver. The facts will appear at the trial, we suppose. We understand there is another person to be arrested. The attempt to take possession of the slip is in consequence of a recent decision touching the rights of riparian owners to the space between high water and low water mark

Yesterday during the temporary absence of the ship-keeper, the cabin of the schooner Andes, lying at Robinson's wharf, was broken open, and on return of the keeper the thief was just leaving the vessel.—He was requested to go the Police office, and started for that place. He soon drew a dirk-knife and placed it in his sleeve, and on arriving at Taylor's Corner, bolted down Broad street. He was lost sight of at the Depot but was afterwards apprehended by Deputy Marshal Adams His name is Nichols. He appears to be a complete wharf-rat.—Union.

THE FIRE RAMPAGE, EXTRAORDINARY. The Eastport Sentinel says that Messrs U. S. Treat & Son, who have for a year or two been engaged in the experiment of the artificial propagation of fish, are still engaged in their enterprise with every prospect of success. The result of their operations last year was the raising of hundreds of thousands of young shad and alewives, all of which went down the stream to salt water. They expect by their operations this season to produce a number equal to that of last year The young fish which have gone to the salt water, will, when fully grown, go back to the waters in which they were bred, at spawning time. It is expected that the fish which went down the stream last season, will arrive at maturity and return to the place of their birth in the spring of 1859 The result of the experiment in rearing salmon and bass has not yet been fully ascertained. Last year twelve of each species, male and female, were put into the lake. The bass did not appear to mind the change from salt water to fresh. It was expected that the old salmon would go down to salt water during the spring freshet, but this has not been done, as they may be seen in the lake on any fine day. The young salmon are very shy, and resemble the lake trout. Should they go to the sea when one year old they will return to the streams and lakes during the latter part of the same season, and will weigh from two to four pounds, the experiment having been fully tested in Scotland and France.

COST OF A COLLEGE COURSE. The expenses of a college education in this State are more moderate than generally supposed. The average of annual charges at Bowdoin College, according to the last catalogue, is less than $200. The items are made up as follows

|---|---|---|
| Tuition | $30 00 | |
| Room Rent | 10 00 | |
| Incidental charges on College bills 18 00 | | |
| Other expenses, such as fuel, lights washing, use of books and furniture | 35 00 | |
| | $97 00 | $97 00 |
| Board per week at $3 or $3—3 $ 39 weeks) | 78 00 to 81 $3 117 00 | |
| | $165 00 | $200 00 |

These charges remain the same in all respects as they were ten or fifteen years since, with the exception of board, which has increased from $1,50 and $2 00 to $2,00 and $3 The Portland Advertiser states however, that good board is still attainable, by club arrangements, at Brunswick, at $ ,50 per week—at which rate the aggregate of annual expense would be reduced to $165 00. At Waterville College whose standard of instruction as well as the local advantages of its site, will suffer in comparison with none in the country, the annual cost is even somewhat lower.

There will be a great military display at Portland to-morrow (Wednesday) upon the occasion of the visit of the Rifle Battalion of the Volunteer Militia of Montreal The Canadian corps will be received by the A, B and C companies of Light Infantry, and the A Company of Riflemen of the 1st Reg., 2d Brig., 5th Div of the Volunteer Militia of Maine.—There will be a grand dinner, a grand parade and an entertainment on Monday The visitors return to Montreal on Thursday.

He immediately left the landing, and applied to our friend "Frank" of the Gardiner Hotel, to be conveyed to Richmond, (a distance of 14 miles,) in season to reach the boat at her landings in that place, and at a good deal of persuasion, our hero ordered his favorite horse "The Lady Lawhill," and a light buggy wagon, and taking his companion in set out for the task, and after passing the box at the end of eight miles, he landed his companion on the steamer's wharf in just 38 minutes from the starting point, and 11 minutes before the boat touched her moorings. The others will then follow in the order in which they were received.

ROSES ENTHUSIASM ABOUT THE TELEGRAPH CABLE.—The Cincinnati Gazette of the 11th inst says "Those of our readers who recollect how stormy last Friday evening was—how the rain fell in torrents, driving everybody from the streets, and combined with the wind and lightning to make such a night as a Christian farmer would not leave his sacrifice-cow out doors in—can appreciate the following brilliant despatch, which we find telegraphed by the agent of the associated press to the Cleveland and other distant papers

Cincinnati, Aug. 7. Our city was brilliantly illuminated last night, all the bells were rung, splendid fireworks displayed, bands of music were out, beautiful ladies graced the streets, and a mighty concourse thronged the city, all in honor of the union of the old and new worlds by the telegraph.

MOSES ANDERSON'S NEW WORK.—The splendid Panorama of Moses Anderson, the "Rake's Progress," a scene which we do not think was happily chosen, was on exhibition at Pierce's Hall, two evenings last week, and elicited great praise from all who witnessed it. It is really a work of great merit. He seems but otherwise life-like characters, upon the brilliant canvas, tell a tale of the woes of intemperance and the blessings of sobriety, that makes an ineffaceable impression upon the mind of all who look upon them No person of ordinary sensibilities, it seems to us, can follow the eminent artist, as he unfolds the panoramic portrait of the different careers of his two heroes through life, without resolving above all things to shun the path of intemperance

The exhibition opens with a life scene at the home of a rich merchant in which the happy family are enjoying all the happiness that wealth can bestow. From this family he selects his first hero, young Charles, a bright interesting lad, and the pride of his doting parents. The next scene is in the home of the drunkard, a painful contrast indeed Here wretchedness, and want, and misery have their abode. From this family he selects his second hero, Willie, (we believe his name is,) a boy who, though clothed in rags and surrounded by adverse influences, exhibits in his lofty forehead, his bright eye, the germ of lofty enterprise and true greatness The different career of these two boys through life is followed by the artist—Charles arriving at manhood—his first temptations—his happy marriage—flattering commencement in life—his gradual downward course, and the closing scene of his mournful career—a wretched home attended by his affectionate companion, and surrounded by a family of helpless, suffering children—he dies a shocking death, attended by delirium tremens. In the terrible death bed scene, the highly imaginative and ingenious artist has displayed the whole power of his art, and the impression created upon the spectators is high ly affecting

Willie, who during the life of his wretched father, had become a news-boy, and thus contributed something to keep his mother and brothers and sisters from starvation, is at last obliged to go with them to the poor house, and soon follows the remains of his inebriate father to the pauper's grave He then, assisted by some of his employers, procures means with which he and his mother and sisters emigrate to the unsettled West Here his career as a man begins The first clearing—the log hut, at the foot of the lake in the wilderness, gradually gives place to the beautiful mansion and the new city The rewards of sobriety, industry and well directed effort culminate in his brilliant inauguration as Governor of the State

The artistic skill and imagination displayed upon the canvass throughout does great praise to Moses Anderson, the artist. The fine contrasts of light and shade, the unity of design, the life-like figures, the rich and gorgeous representations of natural landscape scenery—city scenes by moonlight and gas light—the fashionable saloon, and all create a pleasant impression upon those who have a taste for panoramic paintings, and are, alone, well worth the price of admission. In this Searsport, the ladies presented the artist with two volumes of Chambers' Cyclopedia of English Literature, as a token of their high appreciation of the work. At Stockton, the church of Rev Mr Harris was filled to overflowing to witness it. At the close, Rev Mr Thurston, D. D., spoke of its high merit as a work of art and its moral effect. We subjoin a letter of that gentleman to the artist

"I have had the pleasure of witnessing the exhibition of Mr. Anderson's new Panorama styled The Rake a Progress.

"While I am no professed critic in the fine arts, I cannot suppress the opinion that it is a work of great artistic merit, striking in its conception and execution distinguished ability. Some of the scenes represented appear to me exceedingly fine "The Drunkard's Family is a picture of extreme wretchedness. The Fashionable Saloon is a splendid representation of one of those fashionable plates where are portrayed appetites that lead to ruin. The Farm in the West, in both its states, its surroundings, the artist has given us a landscape of surpassing beauty. Then the scenes of the Governor's Inauguration are exceedingly rich And the two Dioramic representations are highly artistic and striking

"But while admired as a work of art, the Panorama derives its chief value from the moral lesson it conveys. The declining progress of the young man in fashionable life—the wretchedness he inflicts upon a once doting family, and his miserable death, afford an impressive warning against the first glass, and the first step towards dissipation, while the rising course of the drunkard's son, and his honorable career, illustrates the value of temperance principles and resolute industry, and are fitted to stimulate young men of incipient beginnings to noble aims and efforts. If the painting does not impress these lessons, and exert a salutary influence, it will prove the fault of men and not of art."

"My best wishes go with Mr. Anderson, that he may reap large benefits to himself, and these upon the community by exhibiting this new work of art."

Searsport, Aug. 6, 1858. S. THURSTON.

Opening of the Atlantic Telegraph

SUCCESSFUL TRANSMISSION OF THE FIRST MESSAGE!

Queen Victoria to President Buchanan.

MR. BUCHANAN'S REPLY.

SIR EDMUND HEAD TO THE QUEEN

The Triumph of Science Complete!

The Queen's Message to the President.

To the Hon. the President of the United States:

Her Majesty desires to congratulate the President upon the completion of this great international work, in which the Queen has taken the deepest interest.

The President's Reply.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16, 1858.

To Her Majesty Victoria, Queen of Great Britain:

The President cordially reciprocates the congratulations of His Majesty the Queen, on the success of the great international enterprise, accomplished by the science, skill and indomitable energy of the two countries. It is a triumph more glorious, because more useful to mankind, than was ever won by a conqueror on the field of battle. May the Atlantic Telegraph, under the blessing of Heaven, prove to be a bond of perpetual peace and friendship between the kindred nations, and an instrument destined by Divine Providence to diffuse religion, civilization, liberty and law throughout the world. In this work, will not all the nations of christendom spontaneously unite in the declaration that it shall be forever neutral, and that its communications shall be held sacred in peace, to the places of their destination, even in the midst of hostilities?

JAMES BUCHANAN.

Reason of Sir Edmund Head to the Queen

TORONTO, C. W., Aug. 16, 12 P. M.

To the Right Hon. the Secretary of State for the Colonies, London, England.

The Governor General of British North America presents his humble duty to the Queen, and respectfully congratulates Her Majesty on the completion of the telegraphic communication between Great Britain and these colonies.

EDMUND HEAD.

SECOND DESPATCH.

SEVEN DAYS

LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE

ARABIA,

OFF NEWFOUNDLAND.

News of the Success of the Laying of Cable Enthusiastically Received on Change.

St. Johns, N. F., Aug. 15.

The steamship Europa, which sailed from Boston on the 11th inst, and from Halifax on the 13th, arrived at this port at 3 o'clock today.

Her reports having been run foul of on the 11th inst at 32.30 P. M., by the steamship Arabia from Liverpool for New York, which went astern the Europa's lights for the Capa for a night. The rudder and stern of the Europa were knocked off, and much other damage done. She will have to repair at this port.

The Arabia after boarding lay by the Europa some time, and then proceeded on her voyage to New York, not much injured. The Arabia's despatches for the press were sent out to sea the Europa, but Liverpool dates of the 7th were obtained, of which the following is a summary:

The steamship Polista arrived at Southampton on the 5th.

The general news until no great importance; but the commercial advices are of some interest.

The rebellion in Central India had been effectually put down.

Lord Canning's proclamation holds out no hope of expulsion to any persons who were concerned in the murders of British subjects.

It was expected at Paris that the Conseil Municipal was winding up its affairs and would effect a fusion with the discount bank of M. de Germiny.

Vienna advices report a common action of the Austrian corps d'armee, consisting of 250,000 men, on the Po, in south Hungary, on points against Turkey, the Roumans, and Servians frontiers.

It was reported that Mdlle Piccolomini had been engaged by Barnum to make a professional tour in America.

Disraeli favors the repeal of the paper tax, if the Chancellor of the Exchequer will spare the assessed.

There has been a large embarkation of troops for India.

The success of the Atlantic Telegraph was received on change at Liverpool with applause and cannon, and with the declaration that the event united Great Britain and America and lead to the unity of all nations.

The announcement of the arrival of the Agamemnon is not in the papers received here.

Liverpool Markets.

Breadstuffs. There was a good business done in all qualities American flour. Corn was inactive and held at full prices. Wheat has declined 2s 6d a 5s per quarter. Peas nearly 2s6 inactive. Sugar 33s. Coffee steady. Tea unimproved; Congou advanced 1d—quoted 12d a 13d.

Chicago, Aug. 4.

Gen. Watson, Superintendent of the Great Western Railroad, died at Springfield, Illinois, at seven o'clock yesterday morning.

Co laborations, Illuminations &c.

EUTAXIE, August 16.

The receipt of Her Queen's message caused great excitement. Large guns, the salutes, the bells rang together with all the ships in the harbor hoisting flags, ringing; crowds congregated in the streets, and manifested enthusiasm generally. Preparations for a grand illumination are in progress. Hail Columbia," "God save the Queen."

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.

A salute of one hundred guns will be fired here at seven o'clock to-morrow morning, and all the bells rung, in honor of the successful working of the Ocean Telegraph.

ALBANY, Aug. 16.

The afternoon bells ringing, cannons firing and manifestations of joy are in the line of every man, woman and child, at the successful working of the Atlantic Telegraph. A grand celebration takes place to-morrow throughout the city.

ALBANY, August 16.

There is immense excitement here owing to the receipt of the Queen's message. As soon as the intelligence reached the city, rockets were fired from opposite the telegraph office. Bonfires blazed in all the streets and the greatest rejoicings prevailed. Cannon are now being fired, and the bells are ringing.

NEWBURG, August 16.

The news of the successful working of the Atlantic Telegraph and the reception of the Queen's message was received here with manifestations of joy. Bells were rung, cannons fired, and the most jubilant excitement.

[We have despatches from all parts of the country, announcing joyous demonstrations and arrangements for extensive celebrations.]

Various Items.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.

The announcement made last night of the arrival of the frigate Niagara was a mistake. She was not in sight near the highlands at sunset to-night.

BALTIMORE, August 16.

The New York roads persisting in their ruinous reduction of rates to Cincinnati and the regions more especially connected with Baltimore, the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad has recently made a decided break, by reducing the rates of freight, both to New York, Cleveland, Chicago, and the intermediate points, thirty cents per 100 lbs, last night by the Erie and Central road for the first and second class goods. With the present equipment and good condition of the Baltimore and Ohio road, aided by the connections, this additional inducement can readily be accommodated.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.

The intelligence of the reception of the Queen's message spread rapidly throughout the city, and the evidence of the successful working of the Atlantic telegraph occasioned much rejoicing.

In some quarters, however, its authenticity was questioned until a despatch from the general agent of the Associated Press removed all doubt.

The first information to the President on the subject was communicated through Senator Bigler, from information to the Washington Associated Press agency, when the President returned to their by Senator Bigler, came and received the Queen's message at the White House. He then prepared a suitable reply.

The New Orleans Missionary had an interview with Secretary Cass this morning at the State Department and communicated to him the Cuban Herrera memorial by the Congress of that country. There only one question therein and, not three, as heretofore reported; and that relates to the basis of coal depot; but the treaty is accompanied by two private bills in the nature of explanations.

Mr. Erskine, the new Secretary of the British Legation, has arrived here. Mr. Hussell, one of the attaches, exhibits morning to the passage in the Persia for England.

The Mayor of Washington, this afternoon, sent a message to the City Councils, recommending that measures be taken to illuminate the grounds of the Atlantic Cable. Special committees are appointed to arrange the programme.

LINCOLN'S

WATER PROOF BLACKING,

AND LEATHER PRESERVATIVE.

Keep your Feet dry, and you will seldom need a Physician.

IS it not a truth that when the feet are often wet, it is one of the greatest causes of colds and consumption? It is a truth that when leather is often wet and dried, it soon becomes hard, stiff, and worthless; but when it is water-proof, this is remedied. By the application of this preservative, it remains soft, and entirely impervious to water.

After being engaged for 25 years in the manufacture of Leather in all its branches, and being often troubled with wet feet myself, I was led to experimenting on different compositions, and found it easy to make it water-proof, but at the same time extremely injurious to the leather. At last by a chemical process, I discovered a preparation which perfectly harmonizes with the astringent properties with which leather is tanned. It will not only make leather water-proof, but it likewise softens the leather, and it will Positively wear twice as long.

I have now used it for three years, and a large part of that time have worked in a wet tannery; with my boots constantly in water, and have not had my feet wet during that time. I can therefore fix all confidence, recommend it to the public as the best article in the market.

TESTIMONIALS.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R H Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor for procuring pa ents—There are few, if any, persons acting in that capacity who had as much business before the Patent office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, diligence and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a situation to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office
